

6. ADVENTURE TOURISM

This category is open to operators providing adventure tourism experiences that involve active customer participation. Examples could include – but are not limited to – rafting, ballooning, bushwalking, scuba diving, rock climbing, four-wheel driving, fishing, horse riding and abseiling.

Important reminders:

- Entrants must ensure their answers refer specifically to the product and category they are entering.
- Entrants are encouraged to answer questions to highlight participation in tourism-related accreditation programs.

Question 1. Product (20 points)

- a) Describe your services and/or facilities. (10 points)
- b) What adventure tourism experiences do you offer? (10 points)

TIPS: Part a) Explain what you were trying to achieve i.e. your business vision, how you went about it and the related outcomes.

Question 2. Business Plans (20 points)

- a) Describe the key features of your business plan for example goals, strategies and outcomes.
- b) Demonstrate your financial viability. If your business has not experienced growth, explain.

TIPS: Part a) Explain what you were trying to achieve i.e. your business vision, how you went about it and the related outcomes.

Part b) would benefit from the inclusion of graphs illustrating income and expenditure and/or nett profit/loss for the qualifying period. This could be presented as a percentage or dollar value.

To demonstrate if your business is viable you can show:

- An increase in average spend
- Reduction in loans
- Amount of forward bookings compared to previous year
- Agents/wholesalers – 3rd party referrals
- A percentage increase
- Visitation numbers (have they increased?)

Judges want to see that you've got plans in place (particularly if you're a new business) to ensure the continuity of your business, that you have a pipeline. That could be:

- You have a relationship with a local Visitor Information Centre or other sources for referrals
- Repeat customers

You can also show that you've done research into things like the lifetime value of a customer.
